"HE WAS passionate and hungry for great music."

Saying goodbye to Wolfmann

realized he has left me one of the greatest gifts I'll probably ever have, he taught me to always nurture the fire." — Aia De Leon (Imago)

"Before gigs of Revolver Productions, we'd always be worried whether we'd be able to put up a good performance. Wilfrid would simply say, 'Pare, manalig ka,' and everything will turn out fine." — Chuckie Balbuena (Revolver Productions)

"Wilfrid was very passionate about his music. He was, and still is, a constant reminder of how hard we have to work and push the envelope just for the simple reason that we're independent musicians. He had a big heart—in fact, when he went into a coma, only his heart remained functioning... the man rocked." — Vin Dancel (Twisted Halo)

"He gave me a testimonial on Friendster that goes like this... 'Hoy! Penge ng patilya! Matagal ko na pangarap yan eh!' And my testimonial to him went like this, 'O sige, bibigyan kita kung dadalasan mo mag-suot ng T-shirt! Puro ka naman polo eh!' Me and Wilf used to talk about WWE (World Wrestling Entertainment) a lot! We're geeks." — Echo Singson (Boldstar)

"One thing I will never forget about him is his determination and discipline. He always did it his own way, his own time, his own style, never mind all the negative feedback initially he was getting. My last meeting with him was July 1; it was Electronica Manila's general assembly. Took some nice pictures of him; never occurred to me that would be the last time I would see him. Here's to a great musician and friend." — Brian Cua (Hit Productions)
